

A Low Spreader With Plenty of Clearance

YOU will notice at once on seeing the Low 20th Century spreader how low the box is. The top of the box is only 43 inches from the ground. This point is valuable. The waist-high box will save you all of the hardest work of loading because the real strain of pitching manure comes in lifting it above the waist line.

Still there is ample clearance underneath for work in rough fields and soft yards. And you will have no trouble because of lack of traction. The drive wheels of the Low 20th Century are well under the load, supporting the greater part of it. This position of the rear wheels also lightens the draft. A third point is that it does away with the tendency to sag that would be present if the box were suspended between front and rear axles.

Drop in at the nearest dealer's where you can see the Low 20th Century—a trouble-proof, sure-satisfaction spreader.

Kansas Home is Made Happy After Years

Wife Takes Advice of Husband And All Difficulties Are Quickly Banished.

"I strongly recommend Tanlac because I know what it has done in my case," writes Mrs. Rosa Nanker of 133 Winfield Avenue, Oakland, Kas.

"A sick woman with a hundred and one things to do around the house makes the home very unpleasant, but I know what real happiness is since Tanlac gave back my health.

"I had been in a poor state of health for over five years, suffering principally from stomach trouble. I tried most everything and was treated by the best doctors. I even spent a few weeks at the hospital last summer, but received very little relief from it all.

"My husband advised me to try Tanlac, and I have taken three bottles up to now and I think there is nothing that can take the place of Tanlac. I can attend to my household duties without any trouble, and when I retire after a hard days work I enjoy the best of rest and when morning comes I feel refreshed.

"I recommend Tanlac to all my friends and will take pleasure in answering any one that wishes to inquire about what Tanlac did for me.

Nervous, run-down men and women, whose strength has been sapped by modern maladies springing from a disordered stomach, liver, kidney or catarrhal troubles, which are the base of so many ills, and who need more strength, better assimilation, regulated circulation, quick and effective toning up of the nerves; in short a purification of the system, will find that nothing compares with Tanlac in its remedial effects.

Tanlac can be obtained in Baxter Springs at the M. E. Reddy Drug Store.
